

Greg Morton

Greg has been described as having "an animated presence". Not surprising when you read his credentials. As a graduate of animation, Greg worked as an animator on such shows as the Scooby and Scrappy Doo Show and the New Flintstones for Hanna Barbara.

His voice-over talents can be heard on such shows as Robocop and Police Academy, (the cartoon series). He has directed several Saturday morning cartoon hits including ABC's Hammerman (based on M.C. Hammer) and The Legend of White Fang which appeared on HBO.

In 1985, Morton ventured into the world of stand-up comedy. Since then, he has worked throughout the U.S., Canada, Australia and the United Kingdom.

He has opened for numerous celebrities, including Celine Dian, Dionne Warwick, Harry Connick Jr., and most recently Luther Vandross at Radio City Music Hall.

He has been heard on the nationally syndicated radio program, The Bob & Tom Show and he regularly appears in Las Vegas and Atlantic City showrooms.

July, 2001, Greg was one of the featured performers at the Just for Laughs Comedy Festival in Montreal.

He can currently be seen on Comedy Central's Premium Blend.

His two minute rendition of the Star Wars Trilogy and his show-stopping finale of pop star impersonations, (described by many club owners as the best closer in the business), are two highlights that should not be missed.
